Shopping and leisure

Broadway House is a short walk from the shops and boutiques of Victoria which include a House of Fraser store, Zara, Monsoon, Top Shop and many others. There is a chemist across the road and if you need to pick up essential supplies for supper on the way home there is a Sainsburys and also an M&S food hall.

There are plenty of local pubs to relax and chat in after your event in Broadway House – just ask reception for the style you want and they will direct you.

The nearest cash-point machines are in St James's Park underground station opposite.

If you are on an overnight stay, or even just here for the day, make the most of being in the vicinity of Broadway House and within five or ten minutes you can be booking up the London Eye; visiting the London Aquarium; taking a boat down the Thames to Greenwich or to the Tate Modern; visiting the more traditional Tate Galleries on the Embankment; or simply picnicking in St James's Park within sight of Buckingham Palace.
